Dear Prospective Candidate and Parent,

You are about to make a major decision about how involved you are with ECRUSY next year by deciding whether or not you want to run for Regional Executive Board.

This is not a decision to take lightly and not one you can make alone as it involves your family as well. Before you go any farther along in the decision making process you need to have a very truthful conversation with your family as you'll need their support is crucial to the success of any Regional Officer as they will be your cheerleaders, your chauffeur's and some of your biggest critics.

There are quite a few responsibilities that you'll need to take on and while the feelings of accomplishment and pride that come with it are great you need to weigh your options and see if this is really meant for you. You must attend regular meetings and regional and chapter programs and synagogue services. You will be required to spend lots of time connecting with USYers, chapter officers and your Regional General Board counterparts. You will be responsible for creating position specific releases that will not only include tips for success but inspirational pieces. Finally, you are expected to create and run programming at each regional convention in addition to implementing yearlong initiatives. But through all of this you'll have the opportunity to change your life but more importantly the lives of all the teens in ECRUSY!

Every Regional Officer must understand that our ultimate purpose is to bring Jewish teens closer to their Judaism and to strengthen our movement. Officers at all times need to demonstrate this, both at USY programs and outside of those times. Being a Dugma, an example, is perhaps one of the most important aspects of being a regional officer. This means always demonstrating a positive attitude, being on time for meetings and programs, and actively participating in T'fillot, discussion groups and all aspects of programs. Whether you are aware of it or not, you set the tone and those around you will pick up on it. If you talk during programs, other will do the same. Interacting with all kinds of USYers is your job, and bringing them into the core of the ECRUSY world that you know and love is your duty.

While an Officer's academic schoolwork and family obligations always come first, USY has to be your next priority. This means that it has to come before any other extracurricular activity. While the work schedule will have its peaks and valleys, you should expect to spend between 10-15 hours a week working on USY matters during the busy times in the calendar. Now is the perfect time to prepare for how you can make that happen with your already busy and demanding schedule.

PARENTS: We need your help now as your child considers making this commitment to the Region. This responsibility must be a top priority. I urge you to discuss the contents of this Elections Handbook with your child and explore how you and your child (along with your family) will make this commitment work next year. If you feel that your child cannot handle the responsibilities and time commitments of this position, then they should not pursue the position. There are plenty of other ways to play an important leadership role in our region. If you have any questions, please contact me.

On that note, being an officer on the Regional Executive Board is one of the most rewarding and exhilarating experiences. Many prominent people attribute their success to the skills they acquired in USY. Kol HaKavod to you for pursuing this intense leadership opportunity. Remember, win or lose, being a candidate in a USY election is an enriching experience, something I can speak to as someone who ran for REB in USY. B'hatzlacha!

Sincerely,

Jessie Greenspan
Regional Youth Director
ECRUSY Alumna 2003

Eastern Canadian Region, USY

Northeast District, USY

Dear USY leaders and change makers,

Congratulations, you've completed the biggest step in running for Regional Executive Board. Just thinking about running is an impressive step, and you should be proud of yourself! Being on the Regional Executive Board is a difficult job, but being a leader is an even harder one, and you've already accomplished that! You have discovered your love for USY and are ready to give back to the community that you call your home. What brought you to this moment? Thinking back on all of the amazing memories you have made in USY so far, it was probably a combination of many small moments that helped to shape your USY experience. Whether you have memories of a Regional Board member giving you a hug at your first program, or late-night bonding sessions, these experiences are what it means to be in USY. Thinking of moments like these may help you find your why in deciding whether you will run for Regional Executive Board or not.

Being on the Regional Executive Board I have learned so much about myself as well as how to be a better leader. The best advice I have heard over my years in USY leadership, is that every position is what you make of it. Even though one role may seem to have more work than another, every position, on and off the board, has the potential for great things. Your job is to uncover these great things and present them to your USY family. Being on Regional Executive Board, it is your job to create the USY atmosphere that you have loved for so long. Creating this atmosphere sounds like a daunting task, but you have actually been contributing to the USY atmosphere each time you attend a program or convention. The only difference is that now you must be mindful of it. Now you have to be the digma (role model) for the region, because other USYers will look up to you, whether you like it or not.

There is no better feeling than seeing the smiles on other USYers' faces, knowing that you helped to produce that smile. Being on Regional Executive Board is highly rewarding, but don't underestimate the hard work required. The good news is that you're not alone! You have the other board members, your Regional Youth Director, your counterparts, and even the International Executive Board, that are able to help you out. By using all of the resources available to you, and by putting your passion into all of your work and programs, you have the potential to do great things and affect real change.

Throughout this journey you may start doubting yourself. From my experience, the best way to decide if you will be great for the job, is to think about what skills and ideas you have to offer to the region. This is your time to be immodest in discovering what you do best. There is no specific type of person that makes a great Regional Executive Board member. From the shyest to the most outgoing teens, there have been amazing leaders that have come through ECRUSY, proving the various ways in which leaders can emerge to be their best selves. Often times, being on the Regional Executive Board has helped teens break out of their shells and understand themselves better. It teaches you about time management, how to balance your crazy workload, how to work effectively with others, and much more. None of these lessons, however, are relevant unless you open your mind to the possibilities, and allow yourself to learn and grow. You have the ability to touch the lives of so many teens. Just by being a friendly face, talking to someone that seems lonely, and making new friends, you have the ability to change somebody's world.

Whether you decide to run for Regional Executive Board or not, keep striving to make a difference and better the world one person at a time. If you ever have any questions, or need someone to bounce ideas off of, let me know!

Thanks for being you!

Jenna Bienstock
ECRUSY President, 2018-2019

What Does Each Regional Executive Member Really Do?

Here is a brief “job description” of each Executive office. It is not possible to fully describe the obligations of every executive member on a piece of paper. If you are interested in running, it is strongly recommended that you speak to the executive member who currently serves in the position you seek.

President: Jenna Bienstock, president@ecrusy.org

The President plays many roles. Most importantly, the President serves as a resource and helping hand to the Regional Executive, RGB and Chapter Executives. They are responsible to assist with all regional programming, and oversee the Executive with their individual projects and goals. The President assists the Chapter Presidents with membership incentives, programs, and any conflicts that may arise within their Executives. Additionally, the President works closely with the Regional Youth Director in conjunction with the Executive. The President serves on the International General USY Board. The President must be the ultimate dugma (example) for the entire region.

Executive/Israel Affairs Vice-President: Raffi Fox, iavp@ecrusy.org

The Israel Affairs Executive Vice President has many different roles. Firstly, the I/A VP is responsible for planning Israel themed programs at conventions. However, one of the most important roles of the I/A VP is spreading knowledge about Israel. Another large component of the position is working to increase numbers for summer programs and Nativ. They must communicate with their chapter counterparts and assist with Israel advocacy programming within the chapters. Additionally, the I/A VP fills in as Regional President if the current Regional President is unable to do so.

Religion/Education Vice-President: Gavi Gorman, reledvp@ecrusy.org

The Religion/Education Vice President has two jobs- dealing with both the religious and educational aspects of USY. As the Rel in Rel/Ed, you plan, organize, and coordinate all the religious services at each convention. Also, on the International USY level, it is your job to promote and recruit members to the Abraham Joshua Heschel Society, as well as leading Heschel sessions at conventions. As the Ed in Rel/Ed, it is your job to create fun and exciting ways to teach about Conservative Judaism. One final aspect- helping those who want to learn how to lead a service or read Torah, to create a pool of qualified people to daven or read at conventions. While this might sound like a lot, at the end of the day, the Rel/Ed VP has the opportunity to change lives.

Social Action/Tikun Olam Vice-President: Nava Wolfish, satovp@ecrusy.org

The Social Action/Tikun Olam Vice President is responsible for the SA/TO programming on the regional level. They must work with their RGB, chapter board counterparts, other region SA/TO VP's, and the international SA/TO VP. It is important for the SA/TO VP to be well-informed about current social issues and understand the breakdown of Tikun Olam money distribution. Balancing both Social Action and Tikun Olam programming is essential in the overall success of the SA/TO VP. Kind-heartedness and a fun-loving, considerate character along with a desire to make the world a better place would be best describe the kind of person who is fit for the position of SA/TO VP.

Membership/Kadima Vice-President: Keren Gorman, memkadvp@ecrusy.org

The Membership Kadima Vice-President is in charge of membership recruitment in both USY and Kadima, as well as introducing Kadima to the USY age group. Kadima, kids in grades 6-8, is the future of ECRUSY, and the Mem/Kad is responsible for bridging the gap between the Kadima and USY youth groups. The Mem/Kad works with their RGB, with the planning of ice breakers, and membership incentives. They work with the Mem/Kad counterparts to plan social programs and membership projects in their chapters.

Communications Vice-President: Maya Nadler, communicationsvp@ecrusy.org

The Communications Vice President is in charge of advertising regional and international programs. This means maintaining the ECRUSY listserv, Facebook, phonings, and flyers, as well as creating regalia. The Comm. VP is responsible for ECRUSY's publications, such as Newsletter, Yearbook, and Slideshow. They also serve as a role model to their RGB and Chapter counterparts.

Why Run For Regional Board?

Don't run just for the sake of running, because if you win and can't handle your position, then the only thing to suffer from that decision will be the region. You are not just affecting yourself, but hundreds of USYers.

And, if you are running because:

1. .... you want power in USY! (not worth it)
2. .... you want to be popular or gain friends! (doesn't work, I promise)
3. .... you want it for your university application! (not good enough)

...THEN DON'T RUN! It's as simple as that. USY is a youth-led organization and We depend on the Regional Executive Board members.

But, if you are running because:

1. .... You want to help USY for the good of USY!
2. .... you have great programs and ideas to implement!
3. .... you love SATO or Rel/Ed or Israel or Mem/Kad or Communications or Presidenting! (yes, that's now officially a word)
4. .... you squeal with joy at the sight of hundreds of USYers who won't shut up!

...THEN RUN! (Run? Run where?) Run for board!

Have you thought about...?

On the following page are some questions dealing with your ideas, concerns, attitudes, and commitments. This section is not meant as an evaluation of your candidacy for board – you are allowed to run no matter how you answer. This section is meant to make you think about what it means to be on Regional Board, and to consider the commitments that come with the job. Please take these questions seriously, as they will all be read. Please answer these questions on a separate piece of paper.

1. Why do you want to be on Regional Executive Board? (Limit 3 points.)
2. How do you feel about working with different sized groups of USYers? Our programs and conventions range in both age and size from 10 people to 35 people. What, if any, concerns do you have?

3. How do you feel about greater interaction with adults (the Regional Director, the Regional Youth Commission, Youth staff/advisors, parents, etc.)?
4. List commitments besides USY that you will want to maintain during your year on board (sports, school activities, etc.): Just approximate: Commitment, Hours per week, weekends
5. What commitments on your schedule exist that might conflict with the Shabbat and Hagim aspects of standards? How will you deal with this conflict? (limit five points)
6. How do your parents feel about your being on board? Will they support you? Do they have any questions or concerns (...hint hint, ask them!)
7. Please list three (3) initiatives that you plan on pursuing during your term in office.

Why Run? - The Short Essay

That's right! You aren't even on board and you've already got to do some serious work. On a separate page that should be attached to the back of your application, please answer the following short-essay question. Please make your answer in Calibri font, size 12 print, double-spaced, and not exceeding one and a half pages in length.

Question:

No matter which position you are running for, your programming has an impact on how successful the region is in attracting Jewish teens to future programs and conventions.

How do your hopes and goals for the coming year on Regional Board address the need to make USY appeal to a wider range of youth, and get more Conservative-Movement teens involved in our organization?
